

Centre for Youth and Social Development (CYSD), Bhubaneswar is going to organize the second edition of Odisha Development Conclave 2018 from 24th to 26th August 2018. In this year's conclave a new track namely University-Community linkage has been added. The proposed conclave aims to identify key issues and challenges in the social sector, create opportunities for meaningful collaboration among the Government, Civil Society Organizations and the Corporate Houses to have dialogue on the developmental challenges and jointly agree upon a common agenda to overcome those challenges in the State in harmony with the globally agreed Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The Conclave-2018 will have 18 parallel Thematic Sessions, like Tribal Development; Food & Nutrition Security; Panchayati Raj; Democratizing Urban Governance; Rain-fed Agriculture; Employment & Migration; Skill & Entrepreneurship Development; School Education & Quality Learning; Health & Wellness; Drinking Water, Sanitation & Hygiene; Disaster & Climate Change Action; Inclusive Governance & Social Accountability; Child Rights; River Ecology; University Community Linkages; Social Exclusion and Inequality; Corporate Sector in localizing SDGS.

As a part of this Initiative, CYSD is looking forward to engage young and potential Volunteers for Documentation and Event Management who can be the Youth Volunteer leaders for the Odisha Vikash Conclave 2018 both for Documentation and Other Volunteering activities throughout the event. In this context, we take the pleasure of offering our students to acquire hands-on experience in documentation and event management in the Odisha Vikash Conclave 2018-19 on “First come first serve basis”.

We will be engaging “Volunteers for overall Event Management” for Seven days (tentatively from 22nd August, 2018 to 28th August 2018) and will be selected through a proper selection process. Logistics arrangements shall be made for out-station students and every volunteer shall be awarded with a Certificate of Participation on successful completion of volunteering. No remuneration will be provided for the participation. No TA / DA will be provided to the students attending the selection process.

Anyone who is interested must submit his / her CV and brief write up about his / her interest to participate in the Conclave with a subject mentioning OVI-OSOU Volunteers-application to the email id: st.rehman@osou.ac.in by 5pm of 8th August, 2018.
