

( 4 )

Group—D

4. Answer any two questions each within
300 words : 15×2=30
- (a) Discuss the importance of comparative approach to policy analysis.
- (b) Problem definition and agenda setting are the main concepts of public policy. Comment.
- (c) Discuss the strength and limitations of policy analysis.

★ ★ ★

Course Code
MPA – 05

Term End Examination - December, 2019

PUBLIC POLICY AND ANALYSIS

Master of Arts in Public Administration (MAPA)

Time : 3 hours

Full Marks : 100

The figures in the right-hand margin indicate marks

Answer all Groups as directed

Group—A

1. Answer all the questions, each within 1
word or 1 sentence : 1×10=10
- (a) What is Public Policy?
- (b) What is distributive policy?
- (c) Give one example of Regulatory Policy.
- (d) Who propounded the concept of Bounded Rationality?
- (e) Who gave the incremental model of Public Policy?
- (f) Who developed systems model for policy analysis?

( 2 )

- (g) Who formulated the concept of Policy Science?
- (h) In which year Planning Commission was constituted?
- (i) Who heads the Prime Minister's Office?
- (j) What is the full form of PERT in policy monitoring?

Group—B

2. Answer any four questions each within 100 words :  $5 \times 4 = 20$
- (a) How can an ordinary citizen participate in policies in India?
- (b) What are the factors in participation in the policy making process?
- (c) Seniors participate in policies at higher rate than younger people. Comment.
- (d) How interest groups shape policy making process?
- (e) What is the effect of media coverage on attitude towards welfare policies?

( 3 )

- (f) Discuss the role of statutory interpretation in public policy.

Group—C

3. Answer any four questions each within 200 words :  $10 \times 4 = 40$
- (a) Discuss the manner in which public opinion shape policy decisions.
- (b) Discuss the role of scientific experts in the environmental policy formulation.
- (c) Who lobby government officials in policy formulation?
- (d) Media plays an important role in influencing public policy. Comment.
- (e) How legislature influences public policy making process?
- (f) Political parties are integral to the formulation of public policy. Comment.